

CHAIR OF
THE COORDINATING BUREAU OF THE NON-ALIGNED MOVEMENT

STATEMENT TO BE DELIVERED BY THE DELEGATION OF THE BOLIVARIAN REPUBLIC OF VENEZUELA, ON BEHALF OF THE NON-ALIGNED MOVEMENT (NAM), DURING HIGH-LEVEL OPEN DEBATE
OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL ON THE “PROTECTION OF CIVILIANS IN ARMED CONFLICTS”

New York, 22 May 2018

Mr. President,

1. It is an honor for the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela to take the floor on behalf of the 120 Member States comprising the Non-Aligned Movement (NAM).
2. At the outset, we would like to convey, on behalf of the Member States of the Movement, our respects to H.E. Mr. Jacek Czaputowicz, Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Poland, and also to express our appreciation to his delegation for having convened this Open Debate on such an important matter, as well as for the Concept Note drafted to guide our discussions today.
3. Similarly, we would like to thank the Secretary-General and the Director-General of the International Committee of the Red Cross for their much valuable briefings.

Mr. President,

4. We currently live in a time that faces multiple, complex and newly emerging threats and challenges to international peace and security, including as a result of war and protracted conflicts.
5. In the context of armed conflicts, we have seen how the human suffering of the innocent civilians that are caught up in the middle of armed conflicts, particularly the most vulnerable, can be further exacerbated by deliberate, indiscriminate and, in some cases, systematic attacks, in clear violation of the norms of international humanitarian law.
6. During the XVIII Mid-Term Ministerial Conference of the Movement, held in April 2018, in Baku, Republic of Azerbaijan, the Ministers stressed that the protection of civilians is the primary responsibility of the host country, while recognizing that this is a task which is also mandated in a number of United Nations Peacekeeping Operations, to which they reaffirmed their commitment.

CHAIR OF THE COORDINATING BUREAU OF THE NON-ALIGNED MOVEMENT

7. Protection of civilians is indeed, as stated in the Concept Note for this Open Debate, one of the core issues on the agenda of this Security Council, particularly as a result of the significant challenges faced by civilians in conflict-affected countries, ranging from threats or attacks against them, to forced displacement, food insecurity or the need for humanitarian assistance. For that reason, this body must ensure, among others, that the norms of international law, including humanitarian and human rights law, are upheld and respected at all times, particularly in the context of armed conflicts.

Mr. President,

8. The Non-Aligned Movement (NAM) seizes this opportunity to call upon all parties to armed conflicts to comply with their obligations under international humanitarian law, including the principles of precautions against the effects of attacks, proportionality and distinction, by, inter alia, prohibiting the targeting of civilian populations, civilian property and certain special property during an armed conflict, and obliging parties to any conflict to ensure general protection against dangers arising from military operations for civilian installations, hospitals, means of transportation and relief materials, and distribution of such relief materials.
9. Moreover, the Member State of the Movement stress the fact that humanitarian agencies and their personnel must respect the international humanitarian law and the laws of the countries they work in, as well as the guiding principles of humanitarian assistance set forth in the Annex of General Assembly resolution 46/182, including humanity, neutrality and impartiality, and the principle of non-interference in the internal affairs of the host countries, as well as the sovereignty, territorial integrity, national unity and independence of States.
10. Before concluding, we would like to recall that 88% of peacekeeping personnel deployed in the field come from Non-Aligned countries, carrying out mandates with the centrality of protection of civilians. As we have always emphasized, the delivery of the mandates depends on, among other things, the effective tripartite coordination between the T/PCCs, Security Council and the UN Secretariat. In any case, the protection of civilians may hardly be ensured unless the peacekeepers are fully enabled to operate from the highest morale at all times. For this, the importance of all measures to ensure their safety and security cannot be overemphasized.
11. To conclude, the 120 Member States of the Movement strongly condemn all acts of violence, attacks and threats against civilian populations, which may amount to war crimes, and deplore the long-term consequences they have, while stressing the importance of ensuring that those responsible be held accountable, in order to break any impunity cycle, and send a clear and united message of zero-tolerance to these despicable acts.

CHAIR OF THE COORDINATING BUREAU OF THE NON-ALIGNED MOVEMENT

---

I thank you, Mr. President.